WELCOME

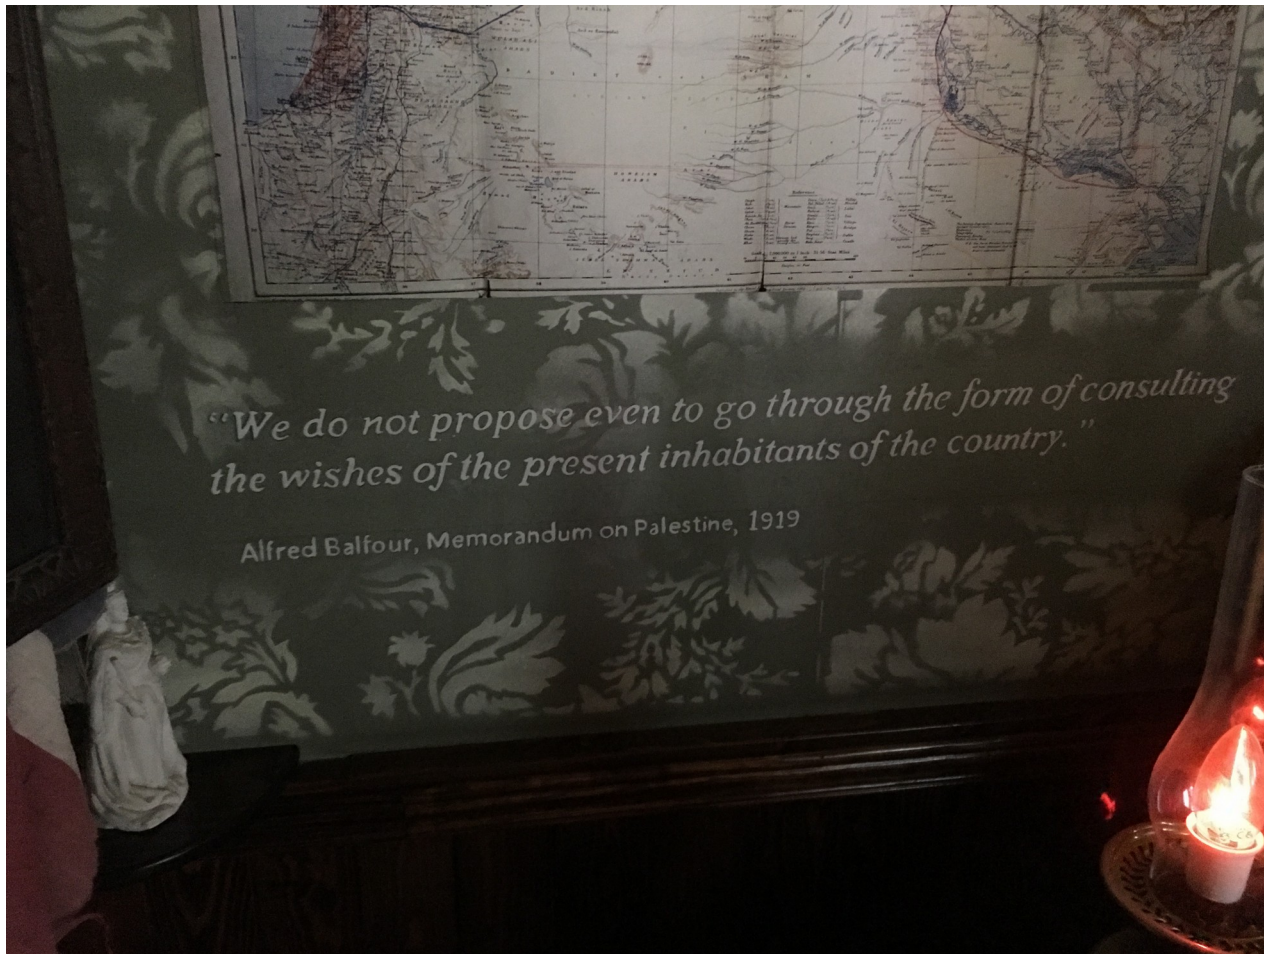

You made it! Welcome to Palestine. The wall outside might seem part of an ancient and intractable conflict, but it began exactly 100 years ago with an Englishman and the stroke of a pen.

Today there is profound inequality between Palestinian and Israeli people, enforced by the wall and a military occupation. This exhibition looks at the wall from many angles, and so contains material some people may find upsetting.

ברוכים הבאים

הגעתם! ברוכים הבאים לפלסטין. הקיר שרחוץ איתו נבנה

Alfred Balfour, 1919

ويعتبر على نطاق واسع
هؤلاء السكان اليوم في طي النسيان. ويوجد الآن من الفلسطينيين خارج الأراضي
الفلسطينية أكثر مما في داخلها.

AN UPROOTED PEOPLE

In 1948 Israel declared statehood, causing immediate armed conflict with neighbouring Arab countries. During the hostilities Israel's military forcibly removed 60% of the Arab population from their land. This event became known by Palestinians as the Nakba (catastrophe) and is widely considered an act of ethnic cleansing. Today many former residents remain in limbo. There are now more Palestinians outside the Palestinian territories than within them.

עם של עקורים

בשנת 1948 הכריזה ישראל על מדינה, מה שגרם לסכסוך מזוין מידי עם מדינות ערב השכנות. במהלך הלחימה ישראל הוציא בכוח 60% מהאוכלוסייה הערבית המקומית מאדמתם. אירוע זה נקרא על ידי הפלסטינים הנכבה (האסון), ונחשב כאקט של טיהור אתני. היום, תושבי עבר רבים עדיין נמצאים בלימבו. יש כיום יותר פלסטינים שחיים מחוץ לשטחים הפלסטינים מאשר בתוכם.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven

A rectangular stone plaque is set on a paved surface. The plaque has a light-colored, textured border and a central black rectangular area. The text is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The background behind the plaque consists of dry leaves and some green foliage.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land

A rectangular stone plaque is set on a sidewalk. The plaque has a light-colored, textured top section and a black bottom section with white text. The text is a quote from the Bible. The background shows some dry leaves and a tree trunk.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied
