

Remembering Who You Are

1.

Which way would the tree fall?

Life in Samsara: what's the real problem?

Get off the rim!!

2.

See clearly!

It is only our attachment—to wanting and not wanting — that is keeping us on the rim of the wheel.

So invite presence, and detach!...

- What mental quality is unabandoned within me so that there are times when greed or aversion or delusion invades my mind and remains?

3.

Realize the peace & happiness of the hub

(the ease of life not based on conditions!)

Three efforts for practice: which calls to you?

Have faith

Trust in your practice

See clearly

Discern the real problem, and get off the rim

Enjoy

Realize the happiness of dwelling in the hub
